

Workshop on the History of Endogenous Growth Theories

June 03 2026

A conference organized by PHARE

June 2026

Venue: Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, France.

Program

Maison des Sciences Economiques, 6th floor.

9.00 – 9.15	Welcome & Coffee
--------------------	-----------------------------

Session 1

Chair: Muriel Dal Pont-Legrand ?

9.15 – 10h15	Thomas Peronnet – “Roy Harrod on economic satiety, leisure and optimal growth”
10:15 – 11:15	Tanguy Le Fur – “Match or Mismatch? Growth Theory and Economic History from the Postwar Era to the ‘Credibility Revolution’”
11:15 – 11:45	Coffee Break
11:45 – 12h45	Pedro Garcia Duarte – “How the ‘Ramsey formula’ came to define time discounting in economics (1950-2000)” (with Béatrice Cherrier)

12:45 - 13:45	Lunch
----------------------	--------------

Session 2

Chair: Ariane Dupont

13:45 – 14:45	Jean-Bernard Châtelain – “Endogenous growth and finance”
14:45 – 15:45	Michael Assous and Alain Raybaut – “Grappling with Economic Instability : a History of Postwar Macroeconomics”
15:45 – 16:00	Coffee Break

Session 3

Chair: Matthieu Renault

16:00 - 17:00	Matheus Assaf Cosendey – “Linking the Solow growth model to optimal growth theory”
17:00 - 18:00	Goulven Rubin – “The rise of endogenous growth theory: a view from the sixties”
20:00	Dinner

Organizers

Matthieu Renault (PHARE, University Paris 1, Matthieu.Renault@univ-paris1.fr)

Goulven Rubin (PHARE, University Paris 1, Goulven.Rubin@univ-paris1.fr)

Registration

Important : If you wish to attend the conference, please send an email to phare@univ-paris1.fr in order to register. The number of seats is limited.